

Please do not change the telephone law in Indiana. It has been a tremendous improvement in the number of interruptions regarding solicitation calls. Those places where I contributed before just contacted me by mail instead. This Indiana law has been a wonderful addition to my life. I only get about one call a week now, instead of 8 or 10.